1. [] OO,
called and advised that two of our field offices have routine matters, one for contact with Representative Edward Boland (D., Miss.) another with Senator Peter Dominick (R., Colo.). I thanked him very much for the advice and indicated that this office could see no reason for objection to either of these contacts.

2. [] Returned to Mike Findley, in the office of Representative Dante B. Fascell, their file on [] with a comment that this Agency was not in any way connected with the [] case and suggested that undoubtedly the FBI both in Miami and in Washington and the Department of Justice as well as the Department of Defense would be the organizations to contact.

In connection with our earlier conversation, I advised Mr. Findley that I had referred the personal resume of [] to our Office of Personnel and added that we had no openings for which he might be considered. Findley thanked me for checking on this and said it was not necessary to pursue this further particularly since [] was being favorably considered by both State and AID.
